

Curo Family

James (JIM) and Ida Curo came to Pemberton in 1912. Jim worked for Tom Robinson driving a bullock train. Tom's wife (Isabella) was Ida's sister. Their brothers were Alf and Bill Foster. Jim Curo and Alf Foster feature in the photo of the bullock team. Information courtesy of Gail Barnsby.

He is said to have worked at the 'Fruit Box Mill.' This was a section of the mill that produced fruit boxes in flat packs to be put together by the purchaser.

Jim married Doris Dickerson.?

Children:

Ray Curo, who became a shire councillor.

Daughter, Sandra

(The Pemberton Heritage and History Group welcomes any information you might have to add to the Curo family story. Please contact us at the Pemberton Museum)