

Knight Family:

Albert Edward Knight arrived in Fremantle as a young child with his parents, Peter and Margaret (Maggi) on the Helena Mena in September 1886. Albert married Maude Burgoyne and they had four children, Albert George, Jessie, Cyril, and Maude. Maggi died in 1913 and Albert later married Agnes Henderson. Electoral records show that Albert and Agnes were living in Pemberton in 1925. It is said that Albert Knight was the first train driver for the Mill.
